NON-SUPPORTING

After a critical review and analysis of the pertinent literature, the author concludes that "tobacco-alcohol" amblyopia is due to a deficienty of B-vitamins.

This is supportive of the concession that an association of tobacco amblyopia and tobacco use has not been substantiated by epidemiological or experimental studies and has been related only by clinical impressions (S & H, p.39)-IIdl.

2025031554

Source: https://www.industrydocuments.ucsf.edu/docs/thcb0003